

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dave Scott has been an educator, administrator, and coach, who has inspired and challenged thousands of young people to be as good as they can be; and,

Whereas, Dave is most proud of being named President of the South Dakota High School Coaches Association; and,

Whereas, Dave has spent 15 years as head wrestling coach, 22 years as head cross-country coach, and 17 years as head track coach; and,

Whereas, Dave's track teams have won three state championships and one runner-up; and,

Whereas, Dave coached his cross-country teams through two state championships and state runner-up titles six times; and,

Whereas, Dave took his cross-country team to 10 regional championships, 17 runner-up titles, his track teams took the regional championship titles 13 times and runner-up 3 times; and,

Whereas, Dave coached his cross-country teams to 11 conference championships, three track championships and one wrestling championship; and,

Whereas, Dave was named National High School Athletic Coaches Association Region Six Coach of the Year, and South Dakota High School Coach of the Year three times:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 8, 2005, as, in South Dakota.

DAVE SCOTT DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson
Chris Nelson, Secretary of State